

Informative Writing in History, Science, and Tech

Today's Standard

11-12.WHST.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts, including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/experiments, or technical processes.

Cues	Notes
What is informative writing?	Informative writing presents facts and explanations about a topic.
How to structure informative texts?	Structure includes introduction, body, and conclusion.
What are common misconceptions?	Common misconceptions include thinking it's just listing facts or that technical writing can't be engaging.
Why is audience engagement important?	Audience engagement is crucial for clarity and effectiveness.
Examples of real-world applications?	Applications include research papers, scientific documentation, and technical manuals.

Summary

Informative writing involves presenting facts and explanations with a clear structure. Common misconceptions include oversimplifying the structure and underestimating the need for engagement. Real-world applications span research, science, and technology.