

Connecting Information in Texts

Today's Standard

1.RI.3 - Describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.

Cues	Notes
What is the standard 1.RI.3?	Standard 1.RI.3 focuses on describing connections between individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.
How do you describe connections in a text?	To describe connections, look for relationships like cause and effect, comparisons, and sequences.
Why are connections important?	Connections help deepen understanding and make the information more meaningful.
What are common misconceptions?	Common misconceptions include thinking all connections are equally significant and that they are always explicitly stated.
How can you find implied connections?	Implied connections require inference, looking beyond the text for deeper meaning.

Summary

Standard 1.RI.3 requires students to describe connections in texts, enhancing comprehension. Key points include understanding relationships, addressing misconceptions, and finding both explicit and implied connections.