

Using Text Features

Today's Standard

1.RI.5 - Know and use various text features (e.g., headings, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text.

Cues	Notes
What are text features?	Text features help readers locate key facts or information quickly.
Why are text features important?	They make it easier to navigate through a text and find specific information.
Examples of text features	Examples include headings, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, and icons.
How to use a table of contents	A table of contents lists the chapters or sections of a book and their page numbers.
How to use a glossary	A glossary provides definitions for important terms used in the text.

Summary

Text features are tools that help readers find information quickly and efficiently. They include headings, tables of contents, glossaries, and more.