

Understanding text and illustrations

Today's Standard

1.RI.6 - Distinguish between information provided by pictures or other illustrations and information provided by the words in a text.

Cues	Notes
What is the standard?	The standard is to distinguish between information from pictures and text.
Why is it important?	It helps students understand how different mediums contribute to overall comprehension.
What is a common misconception?	A common misconception is that pictures and text always convey the same information.
How can we address the misconception?	Use side-by-side comparisons and guided questions to address this misconception.
What will students learn next?	Students will learn to integrate information from text and illustrations for deeper understanding.

Summary

This standard teaches students to differentiate between information from pictures and text, enhancing their comprehension skills. Addressing misconceptions through comparisons and guided questions is key.