

Collaborative Conversations

Today's Standard

1.SL.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

Cues	Notes
What is collaborative conversation?	Collaborative conversation involves talking with others about a topic.
Why is listening important?	Listening is important because it helps us understand what others are saying.
How do you take turns in a conversation?	Taking turns means letting others speak and then sharing your own thoughts.
What should you do if you don't understand something?	If you don't understand something, you should ask questions to get more information.
Why is it important to value different opinions?	Valuing different opinions helps us learn new things and understand different perspectives.

Summary

Collaborative conversations are about talking and listening to others. It's important to take turns, ask questions, and value different opinions to have effective discussions.