Using Text Features

Today's Standard

2.RI.5 - Know and use various text features (e.g., captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text efficiently.

Cues	Notes
What are text features?	Text features are tools within a text that help locate and understand information.
Why are text features important?	They make reading more efficient and help in identifying key facts.
Examples of text features	Examples include captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, and icons.
How to use text features	Use text features by looking at the table of contents, headings, and subheadings to find information quickly.

Summary

Text features are essential tools that help readers locate and understand information efficiently. By using text features like captions, indexes, and glossaries, students can improve their reading comprehension and information-gathering skills.