

Character Responses to Events

Today's Standard

2.RL.3 - Describe how characters in a story respond to major events and challenges.

Cues	Notes
Characters	Characters have unique traits that influence their actions.
Events	Major events in a story can cause characters to react in different ways.
Challenges	Understanding characters' responses helps in understanding the story better.
Responses	Different characters may have different responses to the same event.
How do characters react?	Characters' responses can show their growth and development.
Why do characters respond differently?

Summary

Understanding how characters respond to major events and challenges helps us understand the story and character development better. Different characters can have unique responses based on their traits and motivations.