

Understanding Possessives

Today's Standard

3.L.2d - Form and use possessives.

Cues	Notes
What is a possessive?	Possessives show ownership.
How do you form a possessive noun?	To form a possessive noun, add an apostrophe and 's' (e.g., 'dog's').
Why is using possessives important?	Using possessives helps make writing clear and precise.
Common mistakes with possessives	Common mistakes include confusing plurals with possessives and forgetting the apostrophe.
Examples of possessives	Examples: 'Sarah's book', 'cat's tail', 'teacher's desk'.

Summary

Possessives indicate ownership and are formed by adding an apostrophe and 's'. Correct use of possessives is essential for clear communication.