

Author's Point of View

Today's Standard

3.RI.6 - Distinguish their own point of view from that of the author of a text.

Cues	Notes
What is the author's point of view?	Author's point of view is the perspective from which the text is written.
How do you identify your own point of view?	Your own point of view is your personal opinion or perspective on the topic.
Why is it important to distinguish between different viewpoints?	Distinguishing between viewpoints helps in understanding and analyzing texts critically.
What are some real-world applications of this skill?	This skill is useful in reading news articles, book reviews, advertisements, and historical texts.

Summary

Understanding the difference between the author's point of view and your own is crucial for critical reading and analysis. This skill helps in evaluating texts and appreciating diverse perspectives.