

Point of View in Stories

Today's Standard

3.RL.6 - Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.

Cues	Notes
Point of view	Point of view: The perspective from which a story is told.
Narrator	Narrator: The person or character telling the story.
Character perspective	Character perspective: The unique viewpoint of each character based on their experiences and role in the story.
Compare viewpoints	Compare viewpoints: Analyzing how different perspectives in a story can change the reader's understanding.
Empathy in literature	Empathy in literature: Understanding and appreciating the feelings and viewpoints of others through reading.

Summary

Understanding different points of view in stories helps students develop empathy and critical thinking skills by comparing their own perspectives with those of the narrator and characters.