

Informative Writing Skills

Today's Standard

3.W.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

Cues	Notes
What is informative writing?	Informative writing provides facts and explanations about a topic.
How is it different from narrative writing?	Narrative writing tells a story; informative writing explains or informs. Include facts, definitions, details, and explanations.
What should be included in informative writing?	Facts provide accurate and reliable information that supports the topic.
Why are facts important?	Use graphic organizers like outlines, charts, and diagrams to organize information logically.
How can we organize information?

Summary

Informative writing is about presenting facts and explanations clearly. It differs from narrative writing and should be based on research and evidence. Organizing information effectively is key to writing a good informative text.