

Narrative Writing Structure

Today's Standard

4.W.3a - Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally.

Cues	Notes
What is narrative writing?	Narrative writing tells a story with a clear sequence of events.
How do you introduce characters?	Introduce characters by weaving them into the story context.
What is a natural event sequence?	A natural event sequence flows logically and keeps the reader engaged.
Why is organization important in a story?	Organization helps the reader follow the story and understand the plot.
What are common transitional words?	Common transitional words include 'then', 'next', 'after', 'finally'.

Summary

Narrative writing involves telling a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end. Key elements include introducing characters naturally and organizing events logically to engage the reader.