

Correlative Conjunctions Usage

Today's Standard

5.L.1e - Use correlative conjunctions (e.g., either/or, neither/nor).

Cues	Notes
What are correlative conjunctions?	Correlative conjunctions are pairs of conjunctions that work together to connect balanced elements.
Examples of correlative conjunctions	Examples include either/or, neither/nor, both/and, not only/but also.
Why are correlative conjunctions important?	They help create more complex and varied sentences, improving writing quality.
Common mistakes with correlative conjunctions	Common mistakes include using incorrect pairs like either/nor or neither/or.
How to use correlative conjunctions correctly	Use matching exercises and practice to learn correct pairs and their usage.

Summary

Correlative conjunctions are pairs of conjunctions used to connect balanced elements in a sentence. They are essential for creating complex and varied sentences. Common mistakes include using incorrect pairs, which can be corrected with practice and matching exercises.