Text Quoting and Inferences

Today's Standard

5.RL.1 - Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.

Cues	Notes
What is quoting accurately?	Quoting accurately means using exact words from the text.
How do you draw inferences?	Drawing inferences involves making logical conclusions based on evidence.
Why is textual evidence important?	Textual evidence supports our explanations and interpretations.
What are common misconceptions?	Misconceptions include quoting without explaining and making unsupported guesses.
How can we avoid these misconceptions?	Avoid misconceptions by always linking quotes to explanations and supporting inferences with evidence.

Summary

Quoting accurately and drawing inferences are crucial skills for text analysis. Always support your explanations and inferences with specific textual evidence.