

Informative/Explanatory Writing

Today's Standard

6-8.WHST.2 - Write informative/explanatory texts, including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/ experiments, or technical processes.

Cues	Notes
What is informative/explanatory writing?	Informative/explanatory writing conveys information clearly. A clear structure helps readers understand the information.
Why is structure important?	Include facts, evidence, and logical explanations.
What should be included in informative texts?	Facts are verifiable, opinions are personal views. Misconceptions include lack of structure and including opinions.
How do you differentiate fact from opinion?
What are common misconceptions?

Summary

Informative/explanatory writing is crucial for conveying clear and accurate information. A well-structured text helps readers understand the content, and it's important to differentiate between facts and opinions.