

Comparing Reading and Viewing

Today's Standard

6.RL.7 - Compare and contrast the experience of reading a story, drama, or poem to listening to or viewing an audio, video, or live version of the text, including contrasting what they 'see' and 'hear' when reading the text to what they perceive when they listen or watch.

Cues	Notes
What are the key differences between reading and viewing a story?	Reading allows for personal interpretation and imagination.
How does listening to a story differ from reading it?	Viewing can provide visual and auditory elements that enhance or change the story.
What should you look for when comparing different formats of a story?	Listening focuses on tone and inflection, which can alter perception.
	Different formats can emphasize different aspects of a story.

Summary

Understanding the differences between reading, viewing, and listening to a story helps in developing critical thinking and media literacy.
