

Narrative Writing Structure

Today's Standard

6.W.3a - Engage and orient the reader by establishing a context and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally and logically.

Cues	Notes
What is narrative writing?	Narrative writing involves telling a story with a clear beginning, middle, and end.
Why is a clear sequence important?	A clear sequence helps the reader follow the story and understand the events.
How do characters engage the reader?	Characters make the story relatable and interesting for the reader.
What is a graphic organizer?	A graphic organizer is a tool to plan the sequence of events in a story.
Examples of narrative writing	Examples include short stories, personal narratives, and historical fiction.

Summary

Narrative writing is about telling a story with a clear sequence of events and engaging characters. Using tools like graphic organizers can help plan and organize the story effectively.