

Clear and Coherent Writing

Today's Standard

6.W.4 - Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1-3 above.)

Cues	Notes
What is clear and coherent writing?	Clear and coherent writing means the writing is easy to understand and well-organized.
Why is audience important?	Audience affects how we write; different audiences require different approaches.
How does purpose affect writing?	The purpose of writing (to inform, persuade, entertain) dictates the structure and style.
What are common writing structures?	Writing structures vary; examples include narrative, persuasive, and informative structures.
Why is writing style important?	Style impacts the effectiveness and readability of writing.

Summary

Clear and coherent writing is essential for effective communication. Understanding the audience and purpose helps in choosing the appropriate structure and style.