

Text Structure Analysis

Today's Standard

7.RI.5 - Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how the major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of the ideas.

| Cues | Notes |
|--|---|
| What is text structure? | Text structure refers to how a text is organized. |
| Why is text structure important? | Understanding structure helps in comprehending the author's message. |
| How do sections contribute to the whole? | Major sections like introductions, bodies, and conclusions each play specific roles. |
| Examples of text structures | Examples include chronological, cause-and-effect, and problem-solution structures. |
| Common misconceptions | Misconceptions: All sections are equally important; structure doesn't impact meaning. |

Summary
