

Strengthening Writing Through Revision

Today's Standard

7.W.5 - With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed. (Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language standards 1-3 up to and including grade 7 here.)

Cues	Notes
What is the writing process?	The writing process includes planning, drafting, revising, editing, and rewriting.
Why is revision important?	Revision helps improve the clarity, coherence, and overall quality of the writing.
What does editing involve?	Editing involves correcting grammar, punctuation, and improving the overall quality of the writing.
How can peer feedback help?	Peer feedback provides different perspectives and constructive criticism, which can help improve writing.
What are common misconceptions about writing?	Common misconceptions include thinking the first draft is final and that editing is only about correcting technical errors.

Summary

The writing process is essential for developing strong writing skills. It involves multiple steps, including revision and editing, which help improve the clarity and quality of the writing. Peer feedback is also valuable in this process.