Evidence-Based Writing

Today's Standard

8.W.9 - Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

Cues	Notes
What is evidence-based writing?	Evidence-based writing involves using information from texts to support your ideas.
How do you support analysis with evidence?	Support analysis by providing quotes or data from the text and explaining their relevance.
What is the difference between summary and analysis?	Summary recounts the text; analysis interprets and explains its significance.
Why is it important to use credible sources?	Credible sources ensure that your evidence is trustworthy and accurate.
How can graphic organizers help in writing?	Graphic organizers help structure thoughts and ensure that evidence is clearly connected to analysis.

Summary

Evidence-based writing uses text information to support ideas. It requires credible sources and clear differentiation between summary and analysis.