

Rules for Collegial Discussions

Today's Standard

9-10.SL.1b - Work with peers to set rules for collegial discussions and decision-making (e.g., informal consensus, taking votes on key issues, presentation of alternate views), clear goals and deadlines, and individual roles as needed.

Cues	Notes
What are collegial discussions?	Collegial discussions involve working with peers to discuss and make decisions.
Why are rules important in discussions?	Rules ensure that discussions are productive and inclusive, preventing chaos and ensuring everyone's voice is heard.
How can decisions be made in a group?	Decisions can be made through informal consensus, voting, or presenting alternate views.
What roles might individuals have in a group?	Individuals might have roles such as leader, note-taker, or timekeeper to ensure the group functions efficiently.

Summary

Understanding the importance of rules and roles in collegial discussions helps ensure productive and inclusive group interactions. Effective decision-making involves considering diverse viewpoints and reaching a consensus.