

Effective Oral Presentations

Today's Standard

9-10.SL.4 - Present information, findings, and supporting evidence clearly, concisely, and logically such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and task.

Cues	Notes
What is the main goal of the standard?	The main goal is to present information clearly, concisely, and logically.
Why is clarity important in presentations?	Clarity ensures the audience understands the message and can follow the reasoning.
How can pacing affect a presentation?	Pacing affects how well the audience can absorb and understand the information.
What is the role of supporting evidence?	Supporting evidence strengthens the argument and provides credibility.
How should one organize their presentation?	A well-organized presentation has a clear introduction, body, and conclusion, making it easier to follow.

Summary

The standard focuses on delivering clear, concise, and logical presentations, emphasizing clarity, appropriate pacing, and the use of supporting evidence to strengthen arguments.