

Forming Regular Plural Nouns

Today's Standard

K.L.1c - Form regular plural nouns orally by adding /s/ or /es/ (e.g., dog, dogs; wish, wishes).

Cues	Notes
What is a plural noun?	Plural nouns represent more than one of something.
How do you form plural nouns?	Form regular plural nouns by adding 's' or 'es' to the singular form.
Examples of plural nouns	Examples: cat -> cats, box -> boxes
Common mistakes with plurals	Common mistakes include adding 's' to all nouns or confusing plurals with possessives.

Summary

Understanding how to form regular plural nouns by adding 's' or 'es' is essential for effective communication in both speech and writing. Students need to distinguish between singular and plural forms and avoid common mistakes.