

Spoken Words to Written Letters

Today's Standard

K.RF.1b - Recognize that spoken words are represented in written language by specific sequences of letters.

Cues	Notes
What is the relationship between spoken and written words?	Spoken words are represented by specific sequences of letters in written language.
Why is the sequence of letters important?	The sequence of letters is crucial because it determines the meaning of the word.
What are common misconceptions?	Common misconceptions include thinking letters can be in any order and not understanding the connection between spoken and written words.

Summary

Understanding that spoken words are represented by specific sequences of letters is essential for reading and writing. Misconceptions can be addressed through targeted activities.