

Rhyming Words

Today's Standard

K.RF.2a - Recognize and produce rhyming words.

Cues	Notes
What is rhyming?	Rhyming is when words have the same ending sound.
Why is rhyming important?	Rhyming helps develop phonological awareness, which is crucial for reading readiness.
Examples of rhyming words	Examples: cat-hat, dog-log, sun-run.
Common misconceptions about rhyming	Misconception: Words with the same beginning sound rhyme.
How to teach rhyming	Misconception: Words that share a common letter rhyme. Use visual aids, repetition, and sorting activities to teach rhyming.

Summary

Understanding and producing rhyming words is essential for developing phonological awareness. This skill helps in reading readiness and future literacy tasks. Common misconceptions include confusing beginning sounds and letters with rhyming sounds.