

High-Frequency Words Recognition

Today's Standard

K.RF.3c - Read common high-frequency words by sight (e.g., the, of, to, you, she, my, is, are, do, does).

Cues	Notes
What are high-frequency words?	High-frequency words are common words that appear frequently in text.
Why are high-frequency words important?	Recognizing these words by sight helps improve reading fluency and comprehension.
How can students practice high-frequency words?	Students can practice using flashcards, word walls, and reading simple texts.
What are common misconceptions about high-frequency words?	Students may confuse similar-looking words or rely too much on phonetic decoding.
How can teachers address these misconceptions?	Use visual aids, repetitive practice, and interactive games to help students differentiate and recognize words by sight.

Summary

High-frequency words are essential for reading fluency and comprehension. Students should practice these words using various methods to overcome common misconceptions and build a strong reading foundation.