

Identifying Text Types

Today's Standard

K.RL.5 - Recognize common types of texts (e.g., storybooks, poems).

Cues	Notes
What are common types of texts?	Common types of texts include storybooks and poems.
Why is it important to recognize different text types?	Recognizing different text types helps with understanding and appreciating literature.
How can we differentiate between storybooks and poems?	Storybooks often have a narrative structure, while poems may focus on rhythm and rhyme.

Summary

Understanding different types of texts, such as storybooks and poems, helps students appreciate and comprehend literature better. Recognizing these differences is a key skill in early literacy development.