

Drawing and Writing Informative Texts

Today's Standard

K.W.2 - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose informative/explanatory texts in which they name what they are writing about and supply some information about the topic.

Cues	Notes
What is K.W.2?	K.W.2 involves using drawing, dictating, and writing to create informative texts.
Why combine drawing, dictating, and writing?	Combining these methods helps students express ideas clearly and supports their writing development.
What are common misconceptions?	Common misconceptions include thinking drawing alone is sufficient and fearing imperfect writing.
How to address misconceptions?	Address misconceptions by modeling writing with drawings and emphasizing effort over perfection.

Summary

K.W.2 helps Kindergarten students use drawing, dictating, and writing to create informative texts, laying a foundation for future writing skills. Common misconceptions can be addressed through modeling and positive reinforcement.