

Recall and Gather Information

Today's Standard

K.W.8 - With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

Cues	Notes
What is K.W.8?	K.W.8 involves recalling information from experiences or sources to answer questions.
Why is recalling information important?	Recalling information helps in building research and critical thinking skills.
What are some sources of information?	Sources of information include personal experiences, pictures, videos, and oral stories.
What is a common misconception about recalling information?	A common misconception is that students need to remember everything perfectly without help.
How can visual aids help?	Visual aids like pictures and story maps can help students recall information.

Summary

K.W.8 focuses on helping students recall information from experiences or sources to answer questions, using tools like visual aids to support their memory.