

End punctuation in sentences

Today's Standard

1.L.2b - Use end punctuation for sentences.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Writing a letter to a friend and using periods.; Reading a story and identifying periods, question marks, and exclamation points.; Creating a comic strip and placing correct punctuation at the end of each sentence.

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about using end punctuation in sentences. This means knowing when to use periods, question marks, and exclamation points to make our writing clear.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Kids might think all sentences end with periods, but some end with question marks or exclamation points. They might also forget to use any punctuation.

Quiz Me

- What do we put at the end of a sentence?
- When do we use a period?
- What punctuation mark do we use for a question?
- What do we use for a sentence with strong emotion?
- Can you show me a sentence with an exclamation point?

Help Me

End punctuation helps make our writing clear. We use periods for statements, question marks for questions, and exclamation points for strong feelings. Practice by writing sentences about your day and adding the right punctuation!