

Collaborative Conversations

Today's Standard

1.SL.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Classroom discussions about a story; Group project planning; Sharing ideas during a show-and-tell; Discussing a book with a reading buddy; Participating in a circle time discussion

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about having conversations with our classmates and teachers. We practiced listening and sharing our ideas.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Some kids might think only their opinion matters, but it's important to listen to others too. Also, it's not good to talk all the time; we need to take turns.

Quiz Me

- What is a conversation?
- Why do we need to listen to others?
- What does it mean to take turns?
- What should you do if you don't understand something?
- Why is it important to hear different opinions?

Help Me

When we talk with others, it's like a team game. We listen to what our friends say and then share our own ideas. This helps us learn new things and understand each other better.
