

Understanding and Using Reflexive Pronouns

Today's Standard

2.L.1c - Use reflexive pronouns (e.g., myself, ourselves).

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Writing sentences using reflexive pronouns.; Identifying reflexive pronouns in a story.; Correcting sentences with incorrect pronoun usage.; Role-playing scenarios that involve reflexive pronouns.

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about reflexive pronouns. These are special pronouns like 'myself' and 'ourselves' that refer back to the subject of the sentence.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids think reflexive pronouns can replace any pronoun, which is not correct. Another common mistake is mixing up reflexive pronouns with intensive pronouns, which look similar but are used differently.

Quiz Me

- What is a reflexive pronoun?
- Can you give an example of a reflexive pronoun?
- When do we use reflexive pronouns?
- Can 'myself' be used to replace 'I' in a sentence?
- What is the difference between 'myself' and 'himself'?

Help Me

Reflexive pronouns are used when the subject and the object of the sentence are the same. For example, 'I made myself a sandwich.' This helps make sentences clearer and more accurate.
