Common Stumbling Blocks

Some kids think that all verbs can be changed to past tense by adding '-ed', but that's not true for irregular verbs. Another common mistake is mixing up the past and present tense forms of irregular verbs.

- How do you say 'hide' in the past tense?

Help Me

Irregular verbs are special because they don't follow the regular rule of adding '-ed' to make the past tense. For example, instead of 'sitted', we say 'sat'. You can use these words when telling stories about things that happened before.
