

Common Vowel Teams

Today's Standard

2.RF.3b - Know spelling-sound correspondences for additional common vowel teams.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Reading and pronouncing words with vowel teams like 'ea' in 'bread' and 'ee' in 'see'.; Writing sentences using words with common vowel teams.; Identifying vowel teams in texts during reading activities.; Playing word games that focus on vowel team patterns.; Creating flashcards with words that have vowel teams.

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about vowel teams, which are pairs of vowels that make a special sound together, like 'ea' in 'bread' or 'ee' in 'see'.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Kids might think that all vowel teams make the same sound or that they always follow the same spelling rules. But that's not true! Different vowel teams can make different sounds, and there are lots of exceptions.

Quiz Me

- What is a vowel team?
- Can you give me an example of a word with 'ea'?
- What sound does 'ee' make in 'see'?
- Do all vowel teams make the same sound?
- Are there exceptions to the vowel team rules?

Help Me

A vowel team is when two vowels come together to make a special sound, like 'ea' in 'bread'. Knowing these helps us read and spell better. For example, when we see 'ea' in a word, we know it might sound like 'e' in 'bread' or 'ee' in 'see'.
