

Language conventions in communication

Today's Standard

3.L.3 - Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Writing letters or emails with proper grammar; Giving a speech or presentation; Reading and understanding books or articles; Listening to and comprehending spoken instructions

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about using language rules when we write, speak, read, or listen. This helps us understand each other better.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Some kids think that we only need to use grammar rules when we write, but we also need them when we talk. Another common mistake is thinking that punctuation, like periods and commas, is only for writing, but it helps when we speak, too.

Quiz Me

- What are language rules?
- Why do we need grammar?
- How does punctuation help us?
- Can you give an example of using grammar when talking?
- Why is it important to use language rules?

Help Me

Using language rules helps us write letters, give speeches, and understand books. It makes sure we can share our ideas clearly and understand what others are saying.
