

Using Text Features and Search Tools

Today's Standard

3.RI.5 - Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate information relevant to a given topic efficiently.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Using a table of contents to find chapters in a book; Utilizing keywords to search for information online; Reading sidebars in textbooks for additional information; Clicking on hyperlinks to gather more details on a topic

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to use text features like titles and headings, and search tools like keywords and hyperlinks, to find information quickly.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids might think all online information is true or that text features aren't important. We need to help them understand how to check if information is reliable and why text features are helpful.

Quiz Me

- What is a title?
- What is a heading?
- What is a keyword?
- What is a hyperlink?
- Why is it important to check who wrote something?

Help Me

Using text features and search tools helps us find information quickly. For example, we can use a table of contents to find chapters in a book or keywords to search online. This skill is important for finding reliable information.
