

Text Comprehension Questions

Today's Standard

3.RL.1 - Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Discussing story elements during a book club.; Creating a Q&A; session after reading a chapter.; Using text evidence to answer comprehension questions on a test.; Engaging in peer discussions to clarify understanding of a text.

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to ask and answer questions about a story. We need to use the story to find the answers.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids think any answer about the story is okay, but it has to come from the story. Also, they might think their own ideas are enough, but they need to use the story to help them.

Quiz Me

- What is the main idea of the story?
- Who is the main character?
- Where does the story take place?
- What happened at the beginning?
- Why did the character do that?

Help Me

When we read a story, we need to ask questions about it and use the story to find the answers. This helps us understand the story better.
