

Routine Writing Practice

Today's Standard

4.W.10 - Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Writing a research paper over several weeks; Journal writing daily; Composing letters to pen pals; Writing book summaries; Creating stories for a class anthology

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about writing regularly for different tasks. This helps us get better at writing and thinking.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Some kids think writing fast is better than fixing mistakes. Others think writing is only for school. Both are not true.

Quiz Me

- Why is writing every day good?
- What should you do after writing a draft?
- Can you write stories just for fun?
- What is one thing you can write about?
- Why is it important to fix mistakes?

Help Me

Writing helps us share ideas and tell stories. We can write letters, stories, or even keep a journal. Writing is important for school and for fun!
