

Information Gathering and Note-taking

Today's Standard

4.W.8 - Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Researching for a class project; Creating a report on a historical figure; Writing a book review; Preparing a presentation; Organizing information for a science fair project

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to find and organize information from different sources. This helps us write better reports and presentations.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes kids think all online information is true, but it's not. They also might copy text instead of putting it in their own words.

Quiz Me

- What is reliable information?
- How can you check if a source is good?
- What does it mean to paraphrase?
- Why is note-taking important?
- How can you group related ideas?

Help Me

Finding good information and taking notes helps you learn and remember things better. You can use these skills to do things like write a report or make a presentation.