

Efficient Information Retrieval

Today's Standard

5.RI.7 - Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources, demonstrating the ability to locate an answer to a question quickly or to solve a problem efficiently.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Using library resources to find information for a project; Searching online databases for research; Locating answers in textbooks or reference materials; Using digital tools to solve real-world problems

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to find information from books and websites to answer questions quickly and solve problems.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids think all information is good information. But, they need to check who wrote it and when. Also, copying words doesn't mean they understand. They should use their own words.

Quiz Me

- What does 5.RI.7 mean?
- Why is it important to check who wrote something?
- How can you find information quickly?
- What does it mean to use your own words?
- Why is it bad to just copy and paste?

Help Me

Finding good information helps you answer questions and solve problems in real life. For example, you can use books and websites to learn how to do something new or find out facts for a school project.
