

Sentence Capitalization

Today's Standard

K.L.2a - Capitalize the first word in a sentence and the pronoun I

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Writing their own simple sentences and ensuring proper capitalization; Reading storybooks and identifying capitalized words; Creating name tags with proper capitalization

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about capitalizing the first word in a sentence and the pronoun 'I'. This helps us write correctly and make our sentences clear.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Some kids think only names need to be capitalized, but the first word in any sentence and 'I' should also be capitalized. Sometimes, kids forget to capitalize 'I' in the middle of sentences.

Quiz Me

- What should you do to the first word in a sentence?
- What should you do to the word 'I'?
- Can you show me a sentence with 'I' in it?
- Can you find a capital letter in this sentence?
- Why do we use capital letters?

Help Me

Capitalizing the first word in a sentence and the pronoun 'I' helps us write clearly. For example, we capitalize 'I' in 'I am happy.'
