

Alphabet Recognition

Today's Standard

K.RF.1d - Recognize and name all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Reading street signs and store names; Identifying letters in books and magazines; Spelling their own name and friends' names; Playing alphabet games with blocks or cards; Using letters to write simple words

Today I Learned

Today, we learned about recognizing and naming all the letters of the alphabet, both big and small.

Common Stumbling Blocks

Kids might mix up letters that look alike, like 'b' and 'd'. They might also think big and small letters are different characters. We can help by using fun games to show the difference.

Quiz Me

- Can you show me the letter A?
- What letter comes after B?
- Can you find the letter D?
- What sound does the letter M make?
- Can you write the letter S?

Help Me

Knowing letters helps us read signs, books, and even write our names! We can practice by playing games with letters and finding them in the world around us.
