

Strengthening Writing with Peer Feedback

Today's Standard

K.W.5 - With guidance and support from adults, respond to questions and suggestions from peers and add details to strengthen writing as needed.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Responding to questions about a story they wrote; Adding more details to a drawing and explaining it; Revising a simple sentence based on a teacher's suggestion; Collaborating with classmates to improve a group story

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to make our writing better by listening to questions and suggestions from friends and teachers. We can add more details to our stories to make them more interesting!

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids might think their first try is perfect and not want to change it. They might also feel sad if they think feedback is bad. But feedback is just help to make their work better!

Quiz Me

- What is feedback?
- Why do we add more details to our stories?
- Who can help us make our writing better?
- What should we do when someone gives us a suggestion?
- How does revising our work help us?

Help Me

When we write or draw something, our friends and teachers can help us make it better by asking questions and giving us ideas. This helps us learn and makes our stories more fun to read!
