

Recall and Gather Information

Today's Standard

K.W.8 - With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

Real-World Applications for this Standard

Sharing a story about a family trip; Describing a favorite book; Explaining how plants grow using a picture book; Discussing daily routines with a caregiver; Recounting a classroom activity

Today I Learned

Today, we learned how to remember and gather information to answer questions. This helps us share our stories and learn new things!

Common Stumbling Blocks

Sometimes, kids think they need to remember everything perfectly without help. Another common mistake is thinking that only books can give us information. We can also learn from pictures, videos, and stories!

Quiz Me

- Can you tell me about a fun day you had?
- What did you learn from the picture book we read?
- How do plants grow?
- What did you do in class today?
- Can you describe your favorite animal?

Help Me

We learned how to remember things we've done and find new information from different places like books, pictures, and videos. This helps us answer questions and share what we know with others.
